

CABERNET LIST

14 HANDS - Cabernet Sauvignon, Paterson Washington 2006

A rich and flavorful, chock-full of black currant and dark cherry characteristics. The beautiful ruby color and medium to full body make this a great dinner companion. $9.95

ARBOR CREST - Cabernet Sauvignon Columbia Valley 2006

Ripe and generous with tangy tannins playing against lively currant, blueberry and cedar flavors that linger on the finish. $15.90

BADGER MOUNTAIN - Cabernet Sauvignon Columbia Valley 2007 (Organic) (No sulfites added) Smooth and polished texture, with distinctive violet and plum flavors that echo on the soft finish. $12.15

BEAULIEU VINEYARD - Cabernet Sauvignon Napa Valley 2005

Loamy earth and dry leathery scents don't give the fruit flavors much of a chance. Tasted twice, with consistent notes. $15.90

BEAULIEU VINEYARD - Cabernet Sauvignon Rutherford 2005

Smooth and spicy, offering supple currant, black cherry, plum and hints of lavender. Delightful to drink now, with its supple tannins and complex range of flavors. $28.25

CANYON ROAD - Cabernet Sauvignon California 2003

Simple, with herbal, tart notes of berries. $5.65

CHARLES KRUG - Cabernet Sauvignon Napa Valley

Peter Mondavi Family Vintage Selection 2004

This blend exhibits aromas of black pepper, barrel spice and orange peel while soft supple tannins are married with ripe cherry and rich plum flavors. $60.65

CHATEAU LORANE – 2003 Cabernet Sauvignon (Organic)

An alluring fruity nose draws you into this red wine. Fruit flavors of plum and blueberry along with hints of licorice and coffee. $16.00

FAT BASTARD CABERNET SAUVIGNON

Rich and powerful with a hint of licorice, smooth tannins with a robust and lively finish. $10.50

GILSTRAP BROTHERS - Cabernet Sauvignon Columbia Valley 2004

Full bodied red wine, bold and distinctive, with a deep, dark cherry color. The bouquet initially hints of wood smoke, yielding to black cherry. On the palate, wonderful concentrations of orange and cherry flavors, rich and complex, result in a satin, long-lasting finish. $16.00

GORDON BROTHERS – Cabernet Sauvignon Columbia Valley 2005

A supple style offers plenty of ripe cherry and currant fruit, shaded with hints of red pepper and cream. Lingers well against polished tannins. $19.60

J. LOHR - Cabernet Sauvignon Paso Robles Hilltop Vineyard 2005

CABERNET LIST

A solid wine, with balanced cassis, plum, herb and mineral flavors on a medium frame, with muscular tannins and a lingering, black cherry- and tobacco-influenced finish. $28.00

J. LOHR - Cabernet Sauvignon Paso Robles – Seven Oaks

Rich and focused, with grapey currant, herb and vanilla bean oak flavors that are intense and persistent. $15.95

JACOB'S CREEK – 2002 Reserve Cabernet Sauvignon

Rich ripe and still quite youthful fruit with blackberry, and blackcurrant plus plenty of spicy oak. $11.00

MCMANIS Cabernet Sauvignon California 2007

Overtly toasty, with cinnamon, cedar and sawdust notes to the modest berry flavors, finishing on the dry side. $11.00

NEWTON - Cabernet Sauvignon Napa Valley Unfiltered 2005

Dense and concentrated, touched by dry herb, mint and dried currant flavors that turn austere and tannic. $46.70

NORTON CABERNET SAUVIGNON – 2002 Reserva!

Very rich ruby red in color. Complex ripe red fruit and mint aromas, with notes of chocolate. Great concentration on the palate, with ripe and round tannins with a long and spacious finish. $16.50

PATIT CREEK CELLARS – Cabernet Sauvignon 2005

The '05 Cabernet Sauvignon presents red currant and black cherry flavors within earthy and light coffee characteristics. This Cab is a soft balanced and polished wine with a hint of chocolate at the finish. Northwest wine summit-gold award; long beach ca. Grand Cru-Bronze Award; Dallas morning news international wine competition-bronze award; Washington state wine competition-bronze award; Seattle wine awards-grand award of excellence! $30.70

RODNEY STRONG - Cabernet Sauvignon Alexander Valley 2006

Dry, earthy and leathery, with bitter tannins, little ripe Cabernet fruit and dusty, green herb, sage and hints of tar. Tasted twice, with consistent notes. $19.95 Special Sale $14.25

ROOT 1 - Cabernet Sauvignon Colchagua Valley Root:1 2006

High-toned Cabernet, with Bing cherry and red currant fruit backed by notes of vanilla and sweet dill. $11.20

SAGELANDS - Cabernet Sauvignon Columbia Valley Four Corners 2006

On the light side, with pretty currant and pepper aromas and flavors, finishing with a mild grip of tannins. $9.95

SAVIAH CELLARS - Cabernet Sauvignon, Walla Walla 2007

CABERNET LIST

2009 WINERY OF THE YEAR - Wine and Spirits Magazine. This wine has a rich, focused, distinctive and bracing, with a tight balance of firm tannins and juicy acidity to the gorgeous black cherry, currant and blackberry fruit. This doesn't lose an ounce of momentum as it courses through the long, expressive finish. 93 pts Wine Spectator (April 15, 2009) $29.75

SEVEN HILLS – 06 Walla Walla Cabernet

Intense dark red. Elegant fragrance of dust, marzipan, red plum, black currant, spice, licorice and dried herb. Polished, complex palate of red & black fruits, bitter almond, herb, black licorice and sweet spice. Smooth, bright, lengthy finish. $30.65

VITIS RIDGE - Cabernet Sauvignon, Wahluke Slope

This fruit for this Cabernet Sauvignon comes from the Gilbert Vineyard, situated on the prestigious Wahluke Slope of Eastern Washington. The distinctive rich and peppery flavors of this wine showcase the unique soils and climate of this upcoming winegrowing region. The combination of low yields, meticulous vineyard management and late picking when the flavors are right create a bold and concentrated wine with a lush, lingering finish. $16.00